

broadcasts on radio, tv and over the phone. Does this action violate freedom of speech

The Supreme Court has ruled that burning the American Flag as a form of protest is protected under the Constitution. What do you think about that

The Supreme Court is deciding if sobriety checkpoints along highways are legal. What do you think

What do you think about a Judge's decision to block two key provisions of the state's abortion law

What do you think about the latest rulings involving affirmative action programs

What do you think of the Gay Rights ordinance

What does the phrase, "It's a free country" mean to you

What freedom is most precious to you

What has this Country's independence meant to you

What should be done about obscene bumper stickers

What would your personal "bill of rights" include

What's your definition of independence

What's your reaction to the Supreme Court ruling giving states the right to restrict abortion

Consumerism

People need to be better educated on consumer topics

This is a very broad category, including matters relating to diet, consumer fraud, and education in general.

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph talked with William Meyer, the chief cutter at Lazare Kaplan International, one of the nation's oldest and most respected diamond houses. They talked about some key questions people should ask when buying a diamond.

Host Liz Randolph talked to Mark Petersen of the Pennsylvania Public Interest Coalition about the alarming increases in car insurance premiums in Pennsylvania.

Host Liz Randolph and Jack Wayman, Senior Vice-President of The Electronic Industry Association, discussed the industry's huge trade show in June, what's new in the electronics industry and where it's headed in the future.

Host Liz Randolph and Margaret Zellers, author of two best selling travel books, told us about the best places to go for your money, the tourist traps to avoid and about places that haven't been discovered by the mainstream.

Host Liz Randolph and Michael Westa, consultant with the Monsanto Corporation, talked about the seven most common carpet stains, what products and technologies are available, and what you should look for when buying carpet

Host Liz Randolph and Tom Finnegan, Vice-President of Landmark Savings, discussed buying a home, the current market, and that Pittsburgh is a bargain hunters paradise when it comes to buying a home.

Host Liz Randolph discussed the big concern of liability insurance. Randolph talked in depth with the President of the Pennsylvania Trial Lawyers Association about two pending bills, one federal and one state.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed the president of the Pittsburgh Area Board of Realtors, Mike Ryan. They discussed the current Pittsburgh Housing Market, trends, and tips for buyers and sellers.

Host Liz Randolph talked to Barbara Gibbons, author of the newspaper column "The Slim Gourmet" about the "lite" trend in foods and what consumers should know about the products they buy.

Host Liz Randolph talked to Mary Grisby Stangel, Vice-President of the Cheese Company, and inventor of Lorraine Cheese, covering every aspect of the making of cheese.

Host Liz Randolph talked with president Ronne Hanneman about PTC's new "Travel Pennsylvania at a Discount" program targetted at keeping residents here for vacations and attracting visitors from surrounding states.

Host Shelley Duffy and Alfred Gingold, author of "House Trap," talked about the trials and tribulations of moving and buying a house, how the "American Dream" turns into the "American Nightmare."

Host Shelley Duffy and Barry McNulty from the Institute for Automotive Service Excellence, talked about tips to keep your car running longer and how to avoid getting ripped off when you have to take your car to be serviced.

Host Shelley Duffy and Better Business Bureau spokesperson Nancy Gold talked about health quackery among teenagers- a growing problem no longer prevalent only among the elderly, how to recognize fraud and what to do about it.

Host Shelley Duffy and Bob Freudenberger, a mechanic of 17 years and editor for several publications on the subject, talked about keeping your car safe, especially brakes, steering, and tires and how to choose a mechanic.

Host Shelley Duffy and Chris O'Donnell, Director of Consumer affairs at the Better Business Bureau, Pittsburgh Office, offered great tips for consumers--everything from scams involving gifts and vacation to the "Ed McMahon Sweepstakes!"

Host Shelley Duffy and Collette Rossand, Editor of McCall's Magazine, discussed home and summer entertainment, and how you can save time and money by entertaining at home.

Host Shelley Duffy and District Sales Manager of British Airways, Dawn Huxford, gave tips on traveling to Europe, the best places to stay, and how not to get ripped off.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Ellen Henke, lawn and garden expert, and consultant to John Deere, talked about getting your lawn and garden in shape.

Host Shelley Duffy and Eileen Nechas, Executive Editor of "Children's Magazine," talked about the popular toys this year with kids, how to pick the right one for your children and how to get the most play value.

Host Shelley Duffy and Elliot Adler of Fidelity Investments talked about being a smarter investor and how to make the most of your money one year after the stock market crash last October.

Host Shelley Duffy and International Cruise Line Director, Mike Bock, talked about taking a cruise; how to pick a cruise line and what's available for a low price these days, and how now to get ripped off.

Host Shelley Duffy and Jack Wayman, of the Electronics Industry Association, talked about all the latest innovative products, what's new and what's not in electronics from C.D.s to 4 foot T.V. screens for home entertainment.

Host Shelley Duffy and Jennifer Haberman, of the California Tree Fruit Association, offer tips on summer fruit preparation, consumption, and how to be aware of certain chemicals that could be dangerous.

Host Shelley Duffy and Joe Clark, of Pittsburgh Mattress Company and the Better Sleep Council, tells you how to choose a mattress and pillow, plus what to do to get the best nights rest you can.

Host Shelley Duffy and Linda Borrella of Monet Jewelers talked about updating your wardrobe with jewelry and accessories this spring, she explains how to pick what best suits you!

Host Shelley Duffy and Mariana Keros, Fashion Director for The Limited Stores, talked about fashion ideas for summer 91, how to coordinate the right look inexpensively.

Host Shelley Duffy and Matthew Lesko, author of "Info Power," talked about how you can gain power and rights as a consumer.

Host Shelley Duffy and Matthew Lesko, author of "Info Power," talked about the "power" consumers can have if they buy his book. The book includes lists of numbers and addresses for consumer products and issues.

Host Shelley Duffy and Nanette Catarinella, Chairperson of the Ladies Choice home Show and Pat Minnock, one of the Builders, talked about what's "in" for homes and what women want in their dream, convenience homes.

Host Shelley Duffy and Ron Croushore, President of Merrill-Lynch Realty, talked about home buying tips and what the prime lending rate increases mean to home buyers.

Host Shelley Duffy and Susan Shumacher, a fashion consultant, discussed what women can expect in stores this fall, what fabrics are cooler in the hot weather for professional women, and what "off-price" store means for the consumer.

Host Shelley Duffy and author Matthew Lesko talked about his latest work, "The Great American Gripe Book." The book details where to go if you have a problem and who to contact.

Host Shelley Duffy and director of D.M.A. Lisa Caugherty talked about shopping by phone and mail. She explained why more people are shopping by phone and mail because of the convenience and gives some tips on how to get your product quickly.

Host Shelley Duffy and guest discussed how to choose a mattress.

Host Shelley Duffy and make-up artist Margaret Avery, whose subjects include Brooke Shields and Victoria Principal, talked about how to achieve a great look and keep it, inexpensively.

Host Shelley Duffy and the author of "Mugged By Mr. Badwrench," Sal Fariello talked about how not to get ripped off by mechanics and auto dealers.

Host Shelley Duffy and the author of "Supermarket Epicure," Joanna Pruess, talked about how to know your supermarket, how to learn what to look and ask for, and how you can be a gourmet cook with supermarket items.

Host Shelley Duffy, Lance Schaffer, the Executive President of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce, and Jake Haulk, Senior Economist at Mellon Bank, talked about the local economy, the past, future, and how we can continue to improve it.

Rebroadcast of the 4/14/90 show aired at 7:00.

Repeat of the show broadcast on 6/23/90 at 7:00.

This is a repeat of the show aired on 1/27/90 at 7:00.

This was a repeat of the show aired on 2/3/90 at 7:00.

News

Allegheny County Senator Leonard Bodack talked about Duquesne Light Company's proposed rate hike of 47%. If approved by the Public Utility Commission, the hike would raise the average person's bill by about $22 a month.

Bob Miller, a service expert with West Penn Triple "A" tells listeners how to keep their cars starting in this cold weather and what to do when they don't start.

Carol Reynolds, Federal Trade Commission, talks about credit card fraud during the holiday, how to avoid it and what to do if it happens.

Consumer Advocate, David Barash, said that Bell of PA is realizing large reductions in cost of doing business, but is only passing on tiny reduction to its customers.

Executive Editor of Children's Magazine talked about this year's best new toys for Christmas; explained what "play value" is and how parents can determine what toys have it while shopping.

Jim Ferlo, Chairman, Pennsylvania Alliance for Jobs and Energy, discussed group's effort of helping consumer fight against high rates of telephone company.

New York City Psychotherapist, Dr. Linda Barbanel, talks about dealing with holiday stress, what you can do to ease tension when shopping and doing other holiday traditions.

Pittsburgh IRS specialist talked about changes in tax laws, the new tax forms and the effect on those filing their 1988 tax returns.

Rita Jessu, Pittsburgh Vocational Rehabilitation Center, informed public of a seminar for speech and hearing impaired teaching them how to better handle finances, etc.

Robert Porte, International Fashion & Image Consultant, visits Pittsburgh, discusses why it's important to "dress to win." He explains how he makes women more confident and romantic with their clothes.

Sara Cooper, spokeswoman for the Alliance Against Fraud in Telemarketing, talked about the latest promotions that cheat consumers. She gave tips on how to avoid being taken advantage of when someone calls.

Tim Snyder, a handyman and editor on "How-To" articles in Readers Digest, tells parents how to put together children's toys -- How not to panic and what "tools" not to use.

Pittsburgh Opinion

A new report says vitamins don't really do you much good. Will that influence whether you continue to take them

A tobacco company is being sued by a cancer victim's family due to cigarettes. Is that right

Are people in the service industries getting better or worse at serving

As a consumer, what peeves you the most

Could you survive without Saturday postal service

Do merchants put up Christmas decorations too early

Do you agree with the new unisex insurance laws

Do you think advertising for the Christmas season begins too early

Do you think beer distributors should sell six packs

Do you think it's strange that the phone company charges to call "information" from a regular phone, but it's free from a pay phone

Do you think price tags would be placed on all grocery store items

Does life seem fair to you

Has phone service gotten better or worse since the break up of AT & T

Has the strike against Bell Telephone affected you

Have you ever issued a consumer complaint, or felt you should

How are reports about tainted and chemically treated fruit affecting your grocery list

How do you rate your postal service

How much do you spend each week on groceries? Do you compare prices? Use coupons? Shop at more than one store

How well have you checked the backgrounds of those who work with your kids

Now that many people are getting their credit card bills from Christmas, do you think credit cards should be harder to obtain

Of all the expenses of modern day living, which do you resent paying the most

Should all phone message services like the sex lines and the "gab line" include a warning that there's a charge for the call

Should doctors or lawyers advertise

Should self service gas stations be allowed in the City of Pittsburgh

Should there be a law against the filing of frivolous lawsuits

Should there be caps or limits placed on the amount of money that can be awarded in insurance claims

The Tylenol case goes to trial today. Do you think the makers should be held responsible for the deaths of seven people

The baseball season begins today and so do higher food prices at the Stadium. How do you feel about that

What do you think about Governor Casey's new auto insurance reform plan

What do you think about a lawsuit against Nintendo filed by a teenager who says she suffered wrist injuries from playing the games

What do you think about the Duquesne Light rate hike

What do you think of oil companies raising their prices because of the crisis in the Persian Gulf

What do you think should be done to cut down on insurance rates in this state

What effect does music video have on your record buying habits

What retail store would you like to see come to downtown Pittsburgh

What technological break through would you like to see by the year 2000

What would you say is the best invention, so far, of your lifetime

What's your reaction to insurance companies refusing to renew or sell auto insurance in this state because of the new rate reduction law

When you go to buy a car, what is most important

Will higher gas prices have an effect on your plans for Labor Day Weekend

Would you charge more if credit card interest rates were lower

Crime

Pittsburgh's crime rate is increasing in every category

Inadequate education in the family, the school, and in social situations are at the root of the problem. Drugs, issues of family life, school and the like need to be addressed

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph and two experts on juvenile sex offenders discussed the characteristics common to such people and what can be done to prevent them from becoming adult sexual offenders.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed two people from the Allegheny Center for the Victims of Violent Crime and discussed the fact that in many ways, the "system" is still a defendant's system.

Host Liz Randolph talked with Loretta Swartz-Noble about her book, "Engaged To Murder," which takes an in depth look at the killings of a main line Philadelphia school teacher and her two children by the principal of the school where she worked.

Host Shelley Duffy and Assistant Police Chief, Terese Rocco talked about the recent death of a boy who police thought was kidnapped and what to do to avoid the kidnapping of your children.

Host Shelley Duffy and Pittsburgh Police Department Commander, Terese Rocco talked about the holiday crime rate, why it rises this time of year. Also, the role of women on the police force and what the crime rate is like overall in Pittsburgh.

Host Shelley Duffy and ex-mobster and author of "Blood of Our Fathers," Sonny Firard, talked about his life of crime, how he went straight, and how he wants to help other inmates like himself.

Host Shelley Duffy and guest talked about drugs and laundering money.

Host Shelley Duffy and the author of "Adams vs. Texas," and subject of the movie "The Thin Blue Line," talked about his conviction for a murder he didn't commit, his death sentence, how he became a free man, and the U.S. Justice System.

Host Shelly Duffy acknowledge October as the "Domestic Violence Awareness Month" in PA. Julie Hommel talked about abuse and other violent crimes and what's being done to prevent them from increasing.

Rebroadcast of the show aired on 6/1/91 at 7:00.

News

Ben Woods, Pittsburgh City Council President, accused of taking bribes for contracts, denied all accusations, expressed anger at having his family named in charges.

Bob Cilville, District Attorney of Allegheny County, discussed a raid on pornography, whereby those indicted by a federal grand jury were dealing in prostitution out of seven book stores in a three-county area.

David Fleege, Citiparks Program Director, said he is eager to reopen seven city pools that were damaged by vandalism earlier this week.

Executive Director, Pittsburgh Coalition Against Pornography discussed a rally being held; talked of recent cases of sexual molestation.

John Scarfo, Cranberry Township Police Chief, commented on the killing of a mother, father, sister and neighbor by a 16-year-old who was sick of being told what to do.

Mark, Shannon, user consultant of Carnegie Mellon University, discussed the Trojan

Horse programs sent by computer vandals.

Member of the Pittsburgh Drug Task Force talked about two additional arrests in the "China White" drug case; patent form of heroin is blamed for 13 deaths and more than 64 overdoses in the city.

Pittsburgh Opinion

A new ruling says 16 and 17 year olds can be sentenced to die for committing murder.
Do you agree

Are judges tough enough on criminals

Cathy Webb and Gard Dotson met on T.V. Was that a good idea (She admitted to falsely accusing him of rape)

Did the Philadelphia police do the right thing when they dropped an explosive device on the radical group Move's headquarters

Do you agree that courier services, which provide out of state lottery services, should be illegal

Do you believe in capital punishment

Do you know of incidences of fraud or corruption

Do you think Oliver North is going to get a fair trial

Do you think Oliver North should be granted a pardon from President Reagan

Do you think a Florida man should face homicide charges because his daughter wasn't in a child safety seat when she was killed in an accident

Do you think a person who has been exposed to heavy metal music and staanic activity really isn't capable of premeditated murder

Do you think acting City Council President Ben Woods should step down, now that he's been named in a 29 count indictment

Do you think campus police are doing a good job in terms of safety and crime prevention

Do you think people who are mentally retarded should be executed, like others, who have been convicted of violent crimes

Do you think police should be able to search schools for drugs without probable cause

Do you think pornography is on the rise in Pittsburgh

Do you think the arrest of D.C. Mayor Marion Berry could have been a case of entrapment

Do you think the prison forlough system works

Do you think the sentence handed down to Ben Woods is fair

Do you think the state's form of execution should be the less painful method of lethal injection

Do you think the teens who admitted to beating a former upper St. Clair woman should be sentenced as adults

Do you think we need tighter gun control? In Pennsylvania

Governor Thornburgh has signed the death warrants for three convicted killers. Should we implement the death penalty

Have recent reports about the number of murders committed in the City affected your lifestyle

Have you ever been a crime victim

Have you, in your life experience, ever been exposed to any type of insurance fraud

How can we cut down on overcrowding in prisons

How do you feel about the country's largest trial which could cost taxpayers up to 300 thousand dollars

How do you feel about the judicial system since the conviction of Joe Stienberg on manslaughter charges instead of murder charges

How do you think we can stop the increase of violent crime across the nation

How should we deal with convicted spies? Americans who have betrayed their country

If he violated the law, but did what "higher ups" ordered, should Oliver North be prosecuted for his role in the Iranian Arms Scandal

If a top leader in a city is accused of doing drugs, like Mayor Marion Berry, should he be removed from office

If he is found guilty of wrongdoing, would you support a presidential pardon for Oliver North

If you had to predict the verdict to be returned in the Oliver North trial, would would it be

If you saw a physical crime in progress, would you help the victim? Why or why not

If you saw someone breaking into someone's car, would you report it

If you saw someone tearing your school up, vandalizing, or you knew someone who had vandalized, would you either stop them or tell on them

If you saw vandalism, would you report if ... if the people involved were your friends

In light of the recent Kennedy case, do you think the names of alleged rape victims should be released

Is Pittsburgh still a safe city? Does it seem like there's been a lot of local violent crime lately

Is it alright to use deadly force against a burglar

Jim Bakker and Zsa Zsa Gabor are scheduled to be sentenced today. What should their punishments include

Jim Bakker is being resentenced for his fraud conviction. What kind of punishment would you give him

Now that Manuel Noreeaga is in the U.S. to face drug trafficking charges, do you think he'll get a fair trial in this country

Secretaries: If your boss asked you to do something illegal would you do it, even if you thought it was protecting something you thought was right

Should juveniles convicted of vicious crimes be sentenced to death

Should the Pittsburgh police use stun guns to stop criminals

Should those who oppose the death penalty be barred from juries hearing capital cases

Should we have stricter handgun legislation

What do you think about Governor Casey's signing of a death warrant

What do you think about the assault gun import ban

What do you think motivates people to join cults and commit violent crimes like the murders in Mexico

What is your feedback on the random freeway shootings in California

What should be done to reduce violent crimes in this city

What should we do about our overcrowded prisons

When you hear about crime figures, like the ones just released by the FBI, do they concern you

With statistics showing crime on the rise in the city, are you taking any extra precautions

Would you ever pick up a hitchhiker

Would you want to witness a state execution? Why or why not

Culture and Recreation

The arts can attract tourists and also new business and industry. What is now available must be publicized, and the media can help to promote the city.

Pittsburgh has many cultural and recreational areas, including city parks, Heinz Hall, Benedum Center, our athletic teams, and the Three Rivers Regatta, plus high school and college activities. All attract both local residents and tourists.

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph and Charlie Gray, executive director of the Civic Light Opera discussed the CLO's history, how it has helped launch many local talents into major stars, and how to prepare yourself for a career in the theater.

Host Liz Randolph and Donna Williams, the self proclaimed "Voice of Pittsburgh's singles population" discussed the fact that the majority of Allegheny County's residents are single and some of the newer trends that singles are creating.

Host Liz Randolph and Dr. Virgil Peterson, an English Professor at West Virginia University, talked about the personal and psychological benefits of keeping a personal journal.

Host Liz Randolph and Patricia Wilde of the Pittsburgh Ballet Theater discussed the rigors of dance and the life of a ballerina.

Host Liz Randolph and Vince Gagetta, author of "Pittsburgh Fulfilling its Destiny," discussed how the book delves into the past and peeks at the future. Through the book, we learned more about the city.

Host Liz Randolph and regional Vice-President Mike Caruso of the American Tae Kwon Do Association, discussed how martial arts are becoming more and more popular with women.

Host Liz Randolph and two women, involved in the horse industry in Southwestern Pennsylvania, talked about horses as a business, horses for fun, and how to pick a "first horse" for a child.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Jen Harris, the director of Playworks, a program sponsored by Citiparks. Playworks takes live theater right to the playground in the form of four talented actors who perform everything from improvisation to mime.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Mike Radley of Citiparks about the Brookline Breeze Race and other Citiparks programs.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed two members of this year's Grand Prix Formula One High Speed Boat Race at the 1987 Three Rivers Regatta.

Host Liz Randolph talked to Benjamin Franklin impersonator/actor Ralph Archbold who gave a brief history lesson on the Revolutionary War era, and talked about the planned celebration in Philadelphia to honor the bicentennial.

Host Liz Randolph talked to Dr. Pam Ostricher of the Western Pennsylvania Historical Society about how many valuable records and artifacts are being destroyed due to lack of space.

Host Liz Randolph talked to Frank Johnson, of Philharmonia Jazz, and Dwayne Watkins, of God's Messengers, on how Gospel and jazz come from the same roots, and how they complement one another.

Host Liz Randolph talked to Paul Ferry, a producer with "Fireworks by Grucci," on how the Pittsburgh show was executed and on the big fireworks show in New York.

Host Shelley Duffy and Chuck Gill, who helps organize the "Doll of the Year Awards," talked about doll collecting and gift giving on this Christmas Eve and why dolls are so popular.

Host Shelley Duffy and Denise Artman of Citiparks discussed a new concert series that B-94 FM is kicking off. They are free concerts entitled "Showcase Mondays" and they run for 8 weeks.

Host Shelley Duffy and Irena Chalmers, author of "Good Ol' Cooking," talked about the holiday cooking, how to capture the historic accent of your cooking during the holiday season.

Host Shelley Duffy and Jennifer Bowker, a Representative with T.J. Max, talked about fall fashions.

Host Shelley Duffy and Levi Miller, author of "Ben's Wayne," talked about his transition from life as an Amish, American traditions, and life.

Host Shelley Duffy and Ruth Seitz, author of "Pennsylvania's Historic Places," talked about what's interesting in the way of historical sites in this state.

Host Shelley Duffy and Sylverna Ford, assistant to the Director of University Libraries, discussed a new Smithsonian exhibit that just opened at Carnegie Mellon University. The exhibit details the black migration from the rural South to the North.

Host Shelley Duffy and Turk Pipkin, author of "Be a Clown The Complete Guide to Instant Clowning," talked about how to be a clown, everything from tricks to costumes, anyone can do it!

Host Shelley Duffy and the former butler to the royal family, Peter Russell, talked about the royal family members and about America's fascination with the British and English.

Host Shelley Duffy discussed Pacific cooking.

Host Shelly Duffy and author David Fulmer talked about his book, "A Gentleman's Guide to Toasting," a book on toasting, etiquette, and manners in today's society.

Rebroadcast of the show aired at 7:00 on 11/24/90.

News

Bob Sabot of The Meadows discussed Adios week at The Meadows.

Carol Brown, spokeswoman for Benedum Center for Performing Arts, said that when center opens on September 25, it will home to CLO, Pittsburgh Opera, Ballet Theater and Pittsburgh Dance Council.

Counselors discussed Pittsburgh Marathan with some people from the marathon.

Dee Winchell, owner Lifestyles magazine, said single people, aged 25-49, setting new trends, buying homes at a record rate, waiting longer to marry and have more money to spend.

Dr. Robert Ballard talked about finding the Titanic and how he is producing a film and book on the mission.

Frank Keller of Pennsylvania's Mobile Museum, described exhibit, how and where people would be able to see it.

Gene Connolly, Pittsburgh Regatta chairman, said that regatta people worked out a deal with city to pick up part of cost for police and other safety services.

Ida D'Ierrico of Civic Arena Corporation announced that arena just established parents' room for use of parents of children attending concerts there. They won't have to go home, return and search out their children after the concerts.

Jack Wagner, Councilman, discussed finding a source who will fund fireworks, because they are to be contained until council releases them.

Jan Markowitz, a member of the group, "Committee to Save the Syria Mosque" talks about a recent ruling by a judge that says a demolition permit is valid. She talks about why the building should be saved.

Jenny Miller of Pittsburgh Children's Festival, discussed the festival and its purpose.

Kennywood President, Harry Henniger, talks about shutting down the park to make repairs on major rides to ensure safety to all Kennywood goers. The Steel Phantom is among those closed for going too fast.

Linda Mueller, Pittsburgh's Children's Museum, spoke of a new presentation called "Puppets on Stage"; kids will be able to make their own puppets and stage their own plays.

Lou Kaimaan, Pittsburgh Police, commented on how "scalping" tickets for concerts is becoming increasingly common; with present laws, police can only cite scalpers for vending without a license.

Manager of Costum World in Oakland described what costumes are popular and unique this year for Halloween.

Nellie Briles, ex-pitcher and sports announcer of the Pirates, talked about a bowling benefit to raise funds for the Bob Prince charities.

Pete Christian, Phipps Conservatory, discussed "Fright Night" at Phipps. A special Halloween program for kids and adults.

Rob Banazak, spokesman for Citiparks, talks about all the July 4th activities downtown at Point State Park.

Tamara Duduukavich, coordinator for Pittsburgh Clean City Committee, said that on clean city day over 3,000 volunteers will fan out and pick up about 15,000 bags of litter.

Pittsburgh Opinion

Are you glad the mini skirt is making a comeback

Are you glad when the hussle and bussle of the holiday season is over

Are you happy with our current National Anthem

Can weather forecasters accurately predict the weather

Did you go to the Three Rivers Arts Festival? If so, what was your favorite part

Do you think its worth the time being spent trying to find out if former President Zachary Taylor was murdered

Do you think the big "Liberty Weekend" is too commercial

Do you think the price increase in food, and the elimination of the 24 ounce beer at the stadium will hurt the concession stand business

Do you think this is a good area to live and work in

Does chivalry still exist

Even if you couldn't return, would you want to travel into the future

Give us your best Pittsburghese

How are you going to spend the last big weekend of summer

How are you taking advantage of these last few days of Indian Summer

How do you feel about Riverboat gambling here in Pittsburgh

How do you feel about the possible demolition of the Syria Mosque

How do you pass the time while sitting in rush hour traffic

How do you pick your lottery numbers? Is there logic or is it completely random

How do you usually spend the day after Christmas

How will you be spending your summer vacation

How would you describe your ideal weekend

If an alien from another planet wanted to take you with him, would you go

If you could go back in time to any period of history, which would it be

If you could have your own boat in the Regatta, what would you name it, and why

If you could live any other place besides where you live now, where would it be? Why

If you had to write an essay on how you spent your summer vacation, what would be some of your highlights

If you were stranded on a desert island, what one thing would you want to have with you

If you weren't concerned about watching your weight, what would your diet consist of

If you won tonight's super seven jackpot, what would be the first thing you'd do

In your opinion, which fast food restaurant do you feel has the best burger

It's Halloween. What is it that really frightens you

Now that Disney's M.G.M. studios theme park has opened, will the kid in you be planning a trip south

Now that Summer has officially been kicked off, what are your vacation plans this year

Now that the football season is over, how will you spend the extra time

Now that the warmer weather is here, what job are you finally going to get around to doing

Now that the world's fastest roller coaster has re-opened, are you going to ride the steel phantom

Now that there's only a few weeks of summer left, what would you like to do, that you haven't done yet

Overall, what's your favorite bar and/or restaurant in the area, and what are they famous for

Should there be a law making English the official language in this country

Since the Steelers aren't playing this weekend, what are you going to do with the extra time

Tell us what your idea of summer fun is

The forecast finally includes some sunshine today -- How do you plan to take advantage of it

There's snow in our forecast. What are you doing to get ready for the cold winter months setting in

This is procrastination week. What's the one thing you always put off doing

This week we celebrate our independence from Britain. What accomplishment do you think our forefathers would be most proud of

Today marks the 20th anniversary of the landing on the moon. If you had the chance would you ever travel into space

We've had a taste of all weather this week. What do you enjoy amost about this time of year

Whad did you do this past winter to keep from getting cabin fever

What amusement park ride is your favorite

What are you most afraid of

What are your favorite summer events in Pittsburgh

What are your favorite summertime/leisuretime activities

What do you do to get your day off to a good start

What do you do to pass the time when you're stuck in traffic

What do you enjoy doing most when there's this much snow on the ground

What do you love most about the Three Rivers Regatta

What do you think about the city's decision to move the July 4th celebration in order to save money

What do you think about the on-going effort to save the Syria Mosque

What do you think of the Sports Illustrated swimsuit issue which hit the newstands this week

What do you think the dinner conversation was like during the first thanksgiving

What foreign country would you like to visist

What hot vacation plans do you have lined up this summer

What is it you hate most about that alarm clock going off on Monday mornings

What is your favorite Pittsburgh building

What is your favorite flower, and when is the last time you got flowers

What is your favorite holiday food

What is your favorite part, or what do you like the most, about the regatta

What is your favorite thing to do over the weekend

What kind of car would you like to be seen driving in through the streets of Pittsburgh

What's the best April Fool's Day joke you've ever played on someone

What's the best special event in Pittsburgh

What's the hottest singles bar in Pittsburgh

What's the new "cool" thing to do this summer

What's the new hot spot in Pittsburgh? Where are people hanging out

What's the wildest thing you saw at the Regatta

What's your New Year's Resolution

What's your favorite Thanksgiving day food

What's your favorite holiday tradition/memory

What's your favorite kind of pizza

What's your favorite meal at your favorite restaurant

What's your favorite summertime activity in Pittsburgh

What's your favorite thing about Pittsburgh winters

What's your favorite way to keep warm on these cold winter nights

What's your favorite way to spend a day off

What's your idea of a dream vacation? A dream date

What's your reaction to the recent Playboy Magazine feature on local college students

When you come home from a long day at work, what do you do to unwind

Where are you going for your summer vacation

Where can you find the best ribs in the Pittsburgh area

Where is your favorite place to watch fireworks

Where would you like to be right now

Where's the best place for a picnic

Who would you most like to have dinner with and why

Why do you choose where you're going for your summer vacation

Would you be offended to see nude sunbathers

Would you rather go see a movie or rent a video and stay home

Drug and Alcohol Abuse

Drug abuse affects every aspect of the community. Prevention, Intervention, and Enforcement are needed. Job training, and education are sorely needed. Drug addicts who have succeeded in kicking the habit need to be recognized.

The drug problem in Pittsburgh is growing each day. Awareness campaigns are needed to inform people of the dangers and of the sources of help.

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph and Dr. Arlene Seal discussed her pending lawsuit against the University of Pittsburgh, claiming she was fired as Assistant Dean of Pitt's Honor College after threatening to expose widespread drug use on campus.

Host Liz Randolph and Dr. Robert Ackerman of the Indiana University discussed adult children of alcoholics and discussed the specific traits that adult children adapt to survive.

Host Liz Randolph and Norma Jean Phillips, president of M.A.D.D. discussed the upcoming drive for life, where they are hoping to heighten the consciousness of America to the tragedy of drunk driving, through the programs like designated drivers.

Host Shelley Duffy and Cindy Scapetti, of MADD, Jay Sacone, whose mother was killed by a drunk driver, and Jamie Cohen of SADD talked about their goals, personal experiences, and what they are doing to address certain issues.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Robert Ackerman of Adult Children of Alcoholics discussed what an adult child of an alcoholic is, what process they must undergo for recovery, and how to recognize the signs.

Host Shelley Duffy and John Massella, from Gateway Rehabilitation Center, talked about drug and alcohol abuse and how to overcome the habits.

Host Shelley Duffy and Morris Kokin, author of "Women Married to Alcoholics," discussed the problems these women have overcome, how they have to learn, and how not to feel responsible.

Host Shelley Duffy and Paula Kemps, Associate Director of National Families in Action, talked about 12 tips for helping your children stay drug free. Her 14 year old son was a drug abuser.

Host Shelley Duffy and Robert Slavinsky, Program Administrator for the Alcoholic Recovery Center at East Ohio Street in Pgh., talked about the services provided. He's accompanied by Michael Kerns, President of the board of A.R.C. House.

Host Shelley Duffy and West Penn AAA Safety Manager Greg Tesslevich talked about the new underage drinking laws and how they will hopefully deter teens from drinking and driving.

Repeat of the show aired on 4/13/91 at 7:00.

Repeat of the show aired on 5/5/91 at 7:00.

News

Dr. Richard Cyert, President, Carnegie Mellon University, talked about raids on two CMU Fraternities conducted by city police that led to over 130 arrests for alcohol related offenses.

Michelle Royer, Miss USA, echoed the White House warning to "just say no to drugs."

Rick Hatfield of Brighton Woods Drug Treatment Center discussed fact that, in past two and a half months, nine young crack addicts have been admitted for treatment.

Pittsburgh Opinion

A new study shows alcoholism could be inherited from a gene. Do you agree with that

A new survey says most Americans think drug abuse is the number one concern in this country. Do you agree

Are you under peer pressure to do drugs? Do you succumb

Baseball commissioner, Peter Ueberoth, has called for mandatory drug tests for all baseball personnel. Do you support this action

Do you agree with raising taxes to help fight the war on drugs

Do you agree with random drug testing for employees in the railroad and airline industries

Do you believe the penalties for drunken boating should as tough as those for drunk driving

Do you think a drug testing policy for city police and others in safety related jobs would be a good idea

Do you think alcoholism should be treated as a disease or willful misconduct when a crime's been committed

Do you think warning labels should be put on alcoholic beverages

Has the testimony from the major league baseball players, who have said they've used drugs, changed the way you feel about them

Have you ever tried marijuana

Have you noticed illegal drug use at local concerts? The Civic Arena? The Syria Mosque?

How can Pittsburgh's schools cut down on the use of drugs in schools

Should admitted marijuana users be disqualified from holding public office

Should bartenders be held legally responsible for patrons who drink too much and are then involved in fatal accidents

Should people who serve alcohol at a party be responsible for their guests when they leave

Should some drugs be legalized

Should the U.S. launch air strikes against sites of foreign drug dealers

Steroid use among athletes is on the rise. How should they be treated if caught using the drug

What do you think about legalizing marijuana

What is your reaction to recent N.F.L. crackdown on players who use steroids

Why do you think cocaine use has increased so much in this country

Economy

Pittsburgh is shifting to a service-oriented economy. The decline in our industrial base has brought unemployment and under funding for those organizations which help the unemployed. There is a need for more economic development.

Pittsburgh's transition from a "steel town" to a broader based economy has been difficult.

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph and Dr. Robert Lieber, energy expert and Professor of Government at Georgetown University, discussed whether the U.S. could experience another energy crunch like the one in the seventies.

Host Liz Randolph and a member of the American Bankers Association discussed the stock market crash, consumer fears, the falling dollar and the financially strapped banking system, and assured our listeners that a recession is not on the way.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Dr. James Cunningham, a Professor of Social Work at the University of Pittsburgh. He shared the results of a new study done on "the Resiliency of Mon Valley Residents."

Host Liz Randolph talked to Jerry Fitgibbons, Director of the Turtle Creek Valley Mental Health and Retardation Center, who said that there are many people working behind the scenes to help the economically depressed people of the Valley.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Reuben Slesinger, University of Pittsburgh Economics Professor, discussed his economic forecast for the Pittsburgh area and the after effects of the stock market crash in October of 1987.

Host Shelley Duffy and Duquesne University Professor, Dr. Kurt Rethwisch talked about the recession and how it affects us.

Rebroadcast of the show aired on 1/12/91 at 7:00.

News

Governor Bob Casey commented on Peoples Natural Gas Co. incubator program providing grants to fledgling businesses. Also visited McKeesport - local business and government people put together a plan for revitalization of Mon Valley for $33 million.

Governor Bob Casey discusses the impact of a new TV tube making factory on this area. What it will do to the economy and how it will effect the entire state.

Journalist Louis Rukeyser talked about the show "Wallstreet Week", his career in finance, and the U.S. economy.

Norm Robertson, chief economist at Mellon Bank, predicted that for 1987 service sector will continue to expand as local economy shifts from "rust belt" to "high tech" emphasis.

Russ Gibbons, Union spokesman for United Steelworkers Union, discussed rally by picketing steelworkers of Babcock and Wilcox plant in Beaver County.

Simon Reich, Assistant Professor of Public & International Affairs at Pitt/Economic Specialist, talks about the economic side of war, how it affects you and me, and what it will cost in the end.

Tom Forester, Allegheny County Commissioner, stated that if county builds proposed mid-field terminal at airport, it will create 12,000 new jobs.

Pittsburgh Opinion

Are you expecting company layoffs in the New Year

Are you going to spend more or less this holiday shopping season

Do we need higher import tariffs to save American jobs

Do you always make an effort to buy American

Do you plan to spend more or less this holiday season

Do you think Federal lawmakers will cut the federal deficit

Do you think President Elect Bush will be able to keep his promise not to raise taxes

Do you think commuters pay their fair share, should they pay a commuter tax to the city

Do you think the Government spends too much money on the space program

Do you think there's going to be a recession

Do you think we can balance the Federal budget by 1991

How do you feel about tax reform

How do you think the economy is going to do in 1988

How much money would you have to have to feel wealthy

How's your bank account these days

Is it really possible to achieve the American Dream

Is the steel industry still crucial to the health of the economy

It's been announced Macy's is coming to Pittsburgh. Do you think the city could use another major department store

Mayor Masloff has just introduced her 1991 budget. What would you like to see included in the spending plan

Pittsburgh's city council just paid over $300,000 for 3 American made T.V. cameras rather than pay $75,000 for three Japanese cameras. Their "buy American policy. Was that a good idea

President Bush is now talking about the possibility of a tax increase to reduce the deficit. How would you feel about an increase, even though he promised No New Taxes

President Reagan says we must "be competitive" to compete in other world markets. In your opinion, what can we do to be competitive

Should Congress raise the minimum wage with a sub-minimum wage for teenagers

Should the minimum wage be raised

Should there be a federal law mandating a balanced budget

What do you think about Governor Casey's budget proposal

What do you think of the Mayor's plan to tax commuters who work in Pittsburgh

What would you do to balance the federal budget

What's your feedback on news about the budget

What's your reaction to the situation on Wall Street

When you shop for clothing how important to you is the country in which the clothing was made

Where does Pittsburgh's future lie

Where should we cut the federal budget

Would a voluntary social security system work

Would you be in favor of paying higher federal income taxes to help reduce the federal deficit

Would you be willing to pay higher taxes to help reduce the Federal deficit

Would you support a national lottery to help reduce the federal deficit

Education

The quality of public and parochial education needs improvement. By cutting corners to save money, we are impairing our future.

Improved education is necessary for Pittsburgh to have a better work force, needed to attract new industry.

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph and Anne Louise Backhoushus, an expert of the English language, discussed the local slang, and how our language reflects who we are and from where we come.

Host Liz Randolph and Dr. Claude Mayberry, publisher of the kids paper, "Science

Weekly," gave his views on the educational system. He does not think that we are adequately preparing our children for the future.

Host Liz Randolph and Dr. Mary Stuart, vice president of academic affairs at LaRoche College, discussed the declining number of college age people and the fact that Pennsylvania has one of the lowest numbers of college educated people today.

Host Liz Randolph and Melton Hardy, Director of the Head Start Program for the Pittsburgh Public School System, discussed the program and how they help low income pre-schoolers prepare for first grade by exposing them to new education tools.

Host Liz Randolph and Vocational Education experts Jan Grudden and Mary Ravita discussed what is new in vocational training. They agreed that "Vo Tech" has come a long way to shed it's image of being a "loser's" program.

Host Liz Randolph and the Pittsburgh area director of the United Negro College Fund, Stephan Holmes, and his assistant, Gwen Johnson talked about the UNCF and it's continuing fundraising efforts.

Host Liz Randolph and two members of the Job Corps talked about the program and how it offers the disadvantaged hope, by helping them pay their way through college and finding them jobs when they graduate.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Bob Smith, president of the local Pennsylvania Education Association on whether or not the collective bargaining process is helping to reduce the number of teacher strikes.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed professional educators from the Allegheny Intermediate Unit about the numerous services and programs available for diagnosing and helping the learning disabled.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed two people actively involved in Duquesne University's Annual College Fair. They discussed the program that explains financial aid, curriculums, and campus life to prospective students.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Frederick Lorensen, Director of Duquesne University Admissions, talked about this year's "College Fair," what students are looking for in colleges, and how strict colleges are today.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Terry Cushner discussed how students can improve their SAT scores and how athletes' scores compare to other students.

Host Shelley Duffy and Father Doug Nowicki of the Pittsburgh Catholic Diocese discussed how the Catholic school system has improved and grown and how Pittsburgh can help it to continue.

Host Shelley Duffy and I.M.D. Doctors Tavantzis and Pecaut discussed intermotivational development and underachievers in school. They discussed the causes and solutions for underachievers.

Host Shelley Duffy and Mary Lee Tatum of Planned Parenthood addressed the need for sex education in the classroom. She discussed how it should be approached and the problems that have arisen from parents opposing such classes.

Host Shelley Duffy and Vicki Clites, Program Coordinator for Apples For Kids, talked about how the program raises money through the community so more computers are in the classroom.

Host Shelley Duffy and a group from Duquesne University talked about a project to bring moral education back into the classrooms.

Host Shelley Duffy talked to Cheryl Hurley of Libraries of America who explained the purpose of restoring and providing great literary works to schools, public libraries, and individuals.

Rebroadcast of the 2/10/90 show aired at 7:00.

News

Aide to Senator John Heinz commented on new legislation introduced by Senator. Heinz

Al Fendy, President Pittsburgh and Pennsylvania Federation of Teachers, noted that young people might want to consider teaching careers. There will be a "huge number of retirements" in next 5-10 years.

Arch Moore, West Virginia Governor, rolled back ruling by state Board of Regents which would have eliminated last week of school for students at WVU, as well as summer classes, due to shortfall in funding.

Bob Guccione, Jr., editor and publisher, Spin magazine, discussed censorship at University of Pittsburgh. He felt there's a trend toward censorship now because there is so much to cover up.

Dr. Richard Wallace, Superintendent of Pittsburgh Public School Board, talked about the actions of the board members and their president, Dr. Jake Milliones.

Ed Keller of Wall Street Journal stated that besides education, people are worried about environment, crime and drugs.

Father Donald Nesti, President, Duquesne University, came under fire by school's faculty and students; he explained his actions through a public forum of those concerned.

George Badar, Pennsylvania State Education Association, said that teachers are hoping to benefit from the budget surplus estimated at 300 million dollars.

Hopewell School Superintendent talked about the first teacher's strike in Western Pennsylvania that began at 7:00 am.

Jack Freeman, Executive Vice-President, University of Pittsburgh, announced that Pitt is going to sell all of its holdings in South Africa.

Jerry Petrarca, President, Bethel Park Teachers' Union, discussed teachers' strike; no ending in near future, classes will begin. As of 9/17/86 no new talks scheduled, school board issued final offer including 5% pay raise each year for three years.

Kevin Forsythe, Pennsylvania State Auditor General Office, talked about the possible bid rigging for renovation contracts with the Pittsburgh Public Schools.

Kim Watterson, Director of Advertising at University of Pittsburgh, announced Pitt dedicated a new "honors" college for highly motivated undergraduates.

Marion Dannick, American Civil Liberties Union, discussed lawsuit against Midland School District in Beaver County, for violating rights of students when there were strip searched in a fruitless search for a stolen watch.

Neil Bucklew, President, West Virginia University, said that due a 20% cut in state budget, resulting in loss of $10 million for state universities, WVU would close for the final week of term, mid-May. There would be no summer school.

Professor John Gasiorowski, Sociology Department, Wheeling College, surveyed 1800 high school students; found that sexual habits identical to those of students in general population; Catholics are much less likely to use contraceptives.

Sassy magazine publisher Helen Barr discussed how the magazine addresses very important issues facing teenagers; intent of the magazine is to educate rather than to preach.

Stephan Holmes, United Negro College Fund, indicated planned cuts in federal aid to students would further devastate black students; black enrollment has dropped by 20% each year.

Superintendent Richard Wallace of the Pittsburgh Public Schools, talked about his proposed 1988 budget that increases spending by a small amount, and holds the line on taxes.

Tim Zankus, Pitt spokesman, announced that tuition will increase 8 to 9 percent depending on the major next year.

Tom McQuillian, President, Student Government Association, Duquesne University, want to know why there have been controversial moves by University administration. Noted that students had given Donald Nesti, University president, vote of no confidence

Velle Vernon School Superintendent, Gregory Caruso, discussed the unique teachers' strike in the district. Teachers are represented by two separate unions; one union is on the picket line and one is not because of contract dispute that began in 1987

Pittsburgh Opinion

Are you looking forward to the start of the school year

By 1987, the majority of Pittsburgh's school teachers will make $40,000 a year. Is that too much, not enough, or just right

Do you agree with teaching about how to deal with death, in the classroom

Do you think enough is being done to prevent illiteracy in this country

Do you think its good for children to be educated very early in life

Do you think kids should have extensive pre-school background before attending regular school

Do you think mandatory AIDS education classes are a good idea for students

Do you think our educational system is adequate

Do you think pre-school is beneficial for kids

Do you think sex education should be taught in schools? If not, where

Do you think striking teachers, like those in West Virginia, should be forced back to work

Do you think teachers in this state should undergo a competency test to be sure they are qualified or are still qualified to teach

Do you think teachers should be allowed to strike

Do you think the cost of a college education is too high

Duquesne University has taken disciplinary action against four basketball players who were cleared of rape charges. Was that fair

Governors are meeting with the President to talk about ways to solve education problems. What's your suggestion

How can Pittsburgh's school system be improved

How can we improve our public schools

How do you feel about all female colleges, like Chatham, becoming co-educational

How do you feel about distributing condoms to high school students

How do you feel about dress codes and uniforms for school students

Is it possible to get a good job without a college education

Many students are finishing up their high school careers right now. What's one piece of advice you'd like to give them

Many students head back to the classroom this week. What subjects do you wish they would have offered when you were in school

Most high schools and colleges are back in session this week. What's the real lesson you learned during your school days

Should creationism be taught as science in school

Should elementary school children use calculators or should they learn math the old fashioned way

Should high school students be allowed to smoke on campus

Should school be in session all year

Should school newspapers be censored

Should striking teachers be required to work while their contracts are negotiated

Should students be allowed to hold prayer meetings in public schools after hours

Should students be allowed to hold prayer meetings in school

Should teachers be required to work under their old contracts while negotiating new agreements